

Mountain Living[®]

SPECIAL ANNIVERSARY ISSUE

CELEBRATING
15 YEARS

RUSTIC
CHIC

BOLD COLOR
HIGH STYLE
FRESH DESIGN

JANUARY 2009

$4.95US

01>

0 09281 03346 2

MOUNTAINLIVING.COM

[DREAM LOG HOMES & PLANS] From choosing a location and planning a budget to decorating and maintaining a log home, Dream Log Homes & Plans offers practical advice and helpful tips. Additional tools for home-builders include a resource guide and 36 log-home plans that can be purchased. Creative Homeowner, $21.95

[CABINOLOGY] Whether you're building a new cabin or remodeling an existing one, Cabinology: A Handbook to Your Private Hideaway offers inspiration with hundreds of photos and drawings, first-person accounts by cabin owners from across the country and advice from architect and "cabinologist" Dale Mulfinger. The Taunton Press, $25

[BARK HOUSE STYLE] The history, influence and revival of bark architecture are celebrated in this beautifully illustrated design guide. Featuring designs from the late 1800s to today, Bark House Style: Sustainable Designs from Nature showcases the diverse stylistic applications of bark siding, from Adirondack to Cowboy, Old Linville to Modern Rustic, and highlights its importance in the green-building movement. Gibbs Smith, $30

[CABINS] In his latest book, Ralph Kylloe, a leading authority on rustic furniture, celebrates 12 waterfront homes ranging from tiny riverfront cabins to sprawling family compounds to modern homes that showcase rustic architectural elements and furnishings. Located across the upper United States, from Washington to New England, each cabin offers ideas and inspiration for your own rustic retreat. Gibbs Smith, $60

rustic reading