Fresh from the 1870s

New William Morris fabrics from Charles Rupert Designs include (left) Honeysuckle 1 and Sunflower Etch (right, shown in two colorways), both in linen union. Honeysuckle, available in four colorways, is about $122 per yard. Sunflower Etch is about $112 per yard. (250) 592-4916, charlesrupert.com

Rustic Siding

Reviving a style of rustic siding popular a century ago, Highland Craftsmen harvests actual bark from poplar trees for its long-lived shingles, which are maintenance free. Prices begin at about $6 per square foot. (828) 295-0796, barkhouse.com

Under the Dome

The Pasadena's colorful, mosaic glass dome shade is modeled on an R. Williamson of Chicago original. Measuring 22" in diameter, it comes in a burnished antique finish. The fixture sells for $387 from Rejuvenation. (888) 401-1900, rejuvenation.com

Knee High Pedestal

New from Green Design Furniture, the Neehi is the perfect height for a thin-profile TV. Crafted of sustainably harvested American cherry, it comes in three lengths: 55", 72" or 84". The 55" version retails for $3,950 to $4,450. (866) 756-4730, greendesigns.com
